From: Christopher R. Siebert – High School Principal
Re: Press Release
Date: January 3, 2019

The Salamanca High School will be conducting New York State Regents and local midterm exams during the week of January 22-25, 2019. Students 8-12 will only attend school when they are required to take an exam, all students will be off on Friday, January 25, 2018 as this is a teacher in-service day.

The Ellicottville Vo-Tech students' bus will run at the regular times. If a student does not have a Regents or Midterm, he/she is expected to attend BOCES.

Lunch:

During the week, the high school cafeteria will be open and available to ALL students during normal lunch times.

Review Classes:

Students should check www.salamancany.org/midtermexams for the exam schedule, review class schedule along with helpful websites to use as study materials.

Regents and exam review are currently being offered with a full list of dates and times on our website. Students should communicate with their classroom teacher for more details regarding their exam.

Transportation:

Normal bus routes will run in the am and arrive at the High school by 7:15am, there will be a mid-morning run – all buses will leave the high school by 10:40 am making a normal run and will pick up any student needing transportation back to the school for afternoon exams. Students should be waiting at their bus stop for pickup by 10:45am. Buses will return to the high school by 11:00am. Afternoon buses will depart the high school at 3:00 & 4:00 pm

Extended Day Enrichment will still occur after school and normal transportation will be available.
