Re: Press Release – SCCSD Warrior Holiday Pride Events

Date: December 17, 2017

Salamanca City Central School District students and staff engage in community Warrior Holiday Pride events. On Sunday, December 17th at 9:30am at the Salamanca City Central School District's Seneca Intermediate and Salamanca High School campus at 50 Iroquois Drive in Salamanca, NY, a horse drawn wagon driven by Jim and Dolly Little of The Crosspatch in Little Valley, complete with Santa Claus, elves and a moose will carry US Marine Warren Bissonnette on a four-hour journey to deliver gifts and holiday meals to 45 local families with over 130 children who belong to the Salamanca City Central School District in grades 4-12, for a special holiday giving event.

All employees at the Seneca Intermediate School and Salamanca High School were invited to contribute to the gift giving and holiday family meals that are provided through the 2nd Annual Holiday Pride project. Other contributors included: Save-A-Lot for food donations; Robert Lockwood; Kathy Rizer for hat donations; the Knights of Columbus for coat donations; and the Hill and Wass families and House of Prayer Church for additional assistance. Salamanca High School students and staff volunteered time on Friday after school to wrap gifts and prepare boxes of food for delivery on Sunday morning.

The Holiday Pride project manager is Tammy Bissonnette, a former Salamanca City Central School District Teacher Assistant who is currently working towards her School Psychologist degree. Tammy's contact information is: 716-801-1497 or tbissonnette@salamancany.org
