Spanish and Seneca Honor Societies to Host Cinco de Mayo Dinner at High School

SALAMANCA, NY – The Spanish and Seneca honor societies at Salamanca City Central School District are hosting a Cinco De Mayo dinner from 5-8 p.m. Thursday, May 3 at the High School cafeteria.

The menu's main course is authentic homemade Spanish tortillas and tacos, and Native American fried bread tacos. Rice, refried beans, tortilla chips, deserts, and beverages are included.

Cost is $8 for adults and $5 for children under 12 and senior citizens. Take outs are available.

Dinner tickets are available at the door. Students in the honor societies are also selling tickets prior to the event.

Proceeds benefit the Spanish and Seneca honor societies.

Contact Mr. Walt Zeznick, Spanish Honor Society advisor, at 716-945-2404 extension 6089 or wzeznick@salamancany.org for more information.
