Salamancia CCSD Announces Valedictorian and Salutatorian

SALAMANCA, NY – Salamancia City Central School District has announced Savannah Wujastyk as valedictorian and Ashley Siperek as salutatorian for the class of 2018.

Savannah will graduate with a 103.186 grade point average. In addition to her regular high school courses, she completed six courses at Jamestown Community College this year. In 2017, she was named JCC's College Connections Student of the Year.

Savannah has been involved in many school extracurricular activities. She has been National Honor Society president, secretary for Key Club, and treasurer for the Math Honor Society, Business and Marketing Honor Society, and Class of 2018 Officers. She has also been a member of the Student Council, Student Government, Journalism Staff, Science Honor Society, Physics Club, and Hall Decorating Committee.

Athletically, Savannah has participated in varsity girls' tennis, bowling, and track and field.

Savannah plans to attend Syracuse University to study environmental engineering. She has been accepted into the university's Renee Crown Honors Program, and has been awarded the Engineering and Computer Science Leadership Scholarship and Phanstiel Scholarship from Syracuse. She is also a BEEP Scholar recipient.

Savannah has collected additional awards and honors including: American Legion Auxiliary Empire Girls State Citizen; St. Bonaventure University High School Juried Art Show Finalist; Melaro Writing Contest Participant; Big 30 Academic Team; and New York District Key Club Leadership Training Conference Delegate.

Outside of school, she has been a personal and teacher assistant at the Salamancia Dance Center.

Savannah is the daughter of Maryann and Mark Wujastyk.
